

AMINI BONANE

Amini Bonane is a community builder, organizer, and advocate. She founded Brains Then Beauty; an empowerment organization dedicated uplifting young adults & teens through: service, mentorship, and leadership. As a Congolese American political asylee turned citizen; she organized globally for marginalized children & women. As an advocate, she uses her title of Miss Black DC USA to raise awareness for missing black women and the violence perpetuated against us.

She will receive a master's degree in Government & Political Science from Harvard University; after completing a bachelor's degree in Finance Philosophy & Law from George Mason University, and an associate's degree in Business Administration from the Richard Bland College of William & Mary. Amini has also received diplomas from The Sorensen Institute of Political Leadership at the University of Virginia and The Campaign School at Yale. Amini's lifelong commitment to service and civil rights is what fuels her campaign to become her hometown's 1st black councilwoman.
